<https://socaleducationalevals.com>

Use this checklist to make sure your request is complete and submitted on time.

Before You Submit

- Confirm you have the correct LSAT Qualified Professional Form (Revised April 2026).
- Register for the LSAT early to obtain your LSAC number.
- Schedule your evaluation with a qualified professional 2-5 weeks prior to your due date.
- Ensure your evaluation report includes detailed test impact (how your disability affects timing, focus, or stamina).
- Complete all sections of the Qualified Professional Form accurately.
- Include specific rationales for each accommodation requested.
- Verify all required signatures (there are 4 spots for your evaluator).
- Attach previous documentation, if applicable.
- Submit your application for accommodations by the LSAC deadline for your chosen test date.
- Keep a copy of everything submitted for your records.
